MAJOR LABELS ARE EARNING MORE THAN 51% OF THEIR REVENUE FROM STREAMING

WARNER MUSIC GROUP

SONY MUSIC

UNIVERSAL

UNIVERSAL MUSIC

Last year 184.3 billion on-demand audio streams were delivered, up from 113.5 billion during the same period a year ago, an increase of 62%.

Streaming revenue will exceed $16 Billion In the next 5 years

BUT...

MAJOR LABEL STREAMING

Leaves Independent Artists Behind

The major labels own 20% of Spotify.

The major labels own all of the major playlist creation companies.

Allows labels to pay for streams of their artists. "Sponsored Plays"

No direct deals for indie artists so they must pay middlemen.

Only major label and famous artists are included in their genre searches.

Over 40 millions songs with very little room for independent music to be featured

REVOLUTION

Liberty Equality Fraternity

Liberty from major label tyranny

TYRANNY: cruel, unreasonable, or arbitrary use of power or control.

Equality for every artist and label

The same opportunities, exposure and compensation for all.

Fraternity of independent artists and fans

Taking back the music business for the people who make & love music.
